101 Surprising Facts About Church History

Another Fact from the Book written by Father David Vincent Meconi, SJ.

Fact 4: St. John was the only Apostle who did not die a martyr

Peter and Paul made their way to Rome after A.D.60 to evangelize at the heart of the empire. In the year 64, a devastating fire broke out in Rome and the emperor Nero, blaming the Christians, used it as an occasion to squelch this new religion. During the persecution, Paul was beheaded since he was a Roman citizen and therefore not liable to crucifixion, and Peter was crucified on Vatican Hill. Feeling unworthy of imitating Jesus in those final moments, Pope Peter asked to be crucified upside down. Legends of the other Apostles tell of their bloody martyrdom, except for St. John, who died in exile on the island of Patmos around the year 100.
